THE following Addreſs of the Mayor, Burgeſſes, and Commonalty of the City of Briſtol, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Sir Abraham Elton, and Thomas Coſter, Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament; being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Dunmore, Lord of the Bedchamber in waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Burgeſſes, and Commonalty of the City of Briſtol.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

TO permit your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgeſſes, and Commonalty of the City of Briſtol, humbly to congratulate the Increaſe of your Royal Family on the Birth of another Prince, Son of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales.

This happy Event, as it naturally contributes to ſoften the Cares of Empire, which ſo viſibly affect your Majeſty for the common Good of your People; ſo does it at the ſame Time open to them the moſt agreeable Proſpect, in that the Felicity of your Majeſty's Reign may (by the Permiſſion of divine Providence) be continued down to ſucceeding Ages, by a Line of Princes who will one Day do Honour even to that illuſtrious Stock from which they ſpring.

This, Sir, is the unanimous Wiſh of us your faithful Subjects the Citizens of Briſtol, who entertain a juſt Senſe of the various Bleſſings we enjoy by your Majeſty's Protection and Government, under the Influence whereof we reſt aſſured that our excellent Conſtitution will remain entire, that ſo its Benefits already reaped, may continue to us and our Poſterity.
